Writing test. You must complete BOTH tasks, 1 and 2. Read the instructions carefully. Your texts must be about the topic given in the task descriptions. They must also develop the points given. Write ONLY the specified number of words ($\pm 10\%$). A failure to comply with the instructions will incur penalisation.

TASK 1: 210-240 words.60 marks

Chose ONE of the options below (A or B)

A The new town council has opened a new section on the website inviting citizens to have their say on issues affecting them. This month's topic is how we can make our town a more welcoming place for our youngsters (13-18 year olds).

Write your proposal stating:

- The purpose of the proposal
- The situation as you know it
- Your suggestions
- The work and costs your solutions involve
- How your town will benefit

OR

B You have just read a piece by a beauty receptionist, "Taking Care of Your Appearance Isn't Shallow —It Can Be Good For The Soul", on an online edition of a newspaper. Here are some excerpts where she reflects on various aspects of her job:

I get a unique insight into strangers' private lives. The 60-year-old complaining the £150-worth of Botox hasn't made her look 21 again, The girl crying because a single hair on her neck is ruining her life, the 30-year-old with sore weeping acne.

Many of our patients think their lives will improve after treatment, that it will mean they'll find the perfect partner or the perfect job. The biggest problem they have is a lack of self-esteem ...

A few months ago you changed phone companies, but your old company is still billing you. You have called the company call centre several times. You have even been to the company's branch office to try to sort out the problem. But they always give you contradictory advice.

Write a letter of complaint to the company to demand that they stop billing you. The addresses are already provided.
